Meet our ring stewards, Laura Stephenson (left) and Helen Tress (right). They were busy throughout the show keeping the ring running smoothly. Thank you.

Helen wrote on the Club's Facebook Page: Fabulous day stewarding with Laura Stephenson for a great Judge Phil Freer at club open show. Huge congratulations to winners. Best in show Alison Neal Stone's young boy Ned and Res Best in Show Mel Hennessey's young (at heart) veteran Alaska.

Sarah Middleton (our Show Manager wrote:

Thank you to everyone who came to the NECGB Open show today was fantastic to see you all and thank you again to all the helpers beginning during and at the end.

So much laughter and great camaraderie. And good to see folk really enjoying themselves. Despite the horrendous wet weather it didn't dampen the spirits in the hall. Thank you to Britt chef extraordinaire for a lovely lunch. (perks of the job). And to committee for thank you gifts

Important notice to the Members of the Norwegian Elkhound Club of Great Britain:

Many smaller breed clubs, such as the NECGB, are increasingly having to tussle with the cost of postage sending out "snail" mail to the Membership and that leads us to this plea:

The Club needs to communicate with Members via e-mail and we are urging everyone to please supply your current e-mail address together with updated postal address that will be needed to post out the Annual Journal and voting papers when required.

Please send your e-mail address and any other relevant updated information to the Secretary:

Linda Middleton
graythor1@gmail.com or by post to:

Mrs. L. Middleton, Clare Green,
1-3 Edge End Lane, Edge End,
Nelson, Lancs BB9 0PR

Anyone without access to a computer can opt out of e-mail by writing to Linda Middleton.

Thank you
