

Norwegian Elkhound Notes 19th October 2025

It's taken a while but news has come from Treena Maun that she's at last had confirmation from the RKC that Bowerhinton Blackbird is now a Champion She got her third CC at Leeds under Jill Peak. Congratulations.

Last weekend was the NEAS Ch Show with Vanessa McHugh judging. All reports say that it was a very happy show with a lovely meal afterwards. Many thanks to Maggie and Karen for sending me the results. I hope everyone got home again safely. It's a very long journey for some of the committee. The judging ring wasn't terribly big and a couple of dogs had difficulty getting into their stride.

The top results were the same as last year. Maggie and Sally took BCC and BIS with Ch/Am Ch Kamgaard Klementina and DCC and Res BIS and BOS went to Treena Main with Ch Bowerhinton Bassanio. Both of these two dogs are fighting it out for the title of top dog in Dog World. Maggie and Sally's youngster, Kamgaard Kariad who has been winning so well in puppy was just 3 days too old for the puppy class but she did win Junior Bitch. She is presently top puppy in the breed. However, this time Best Puppy went to Karen and Alan Gold's new baby at her very first show aged just 6 months and one week. She's called Ravenheim Blue Mystique of Llassah. Sired by Karen's Ch Graythor at the Venetian with Lassah out of Ravenheim's Tor Vildenvaer, she took to the ring as if she's been doing it forever and won both Minor Puppy Bitch and Puppy bitch. Best Puppy Dog and Res Best Puppy, over from Ireland was Theresa McKittrick's Cnocanoir an Goban Saor. (I wish I could pronounce that LOL) who has been winning well on the Munster circuit. He's out of Seasara High Flyer by Graythor Loves the Elara.

Reserve BCC went to Tanja Mortimer's Ch Laakso Dana and quite a new face won Res BCC in the form of Mr McPeake's Treskha Tork. Best Veteran was Tanja's Ch Laakso Canute. Tanja also won the Brace and Team classes.

In the Special Award Classes judged by Mrs Lorna Binks, Junior was won by the Gold's Ravenheim Blue Mystique of Llassah. Limit went to Tysons' Bowerhinton Bright Flame at Starceylon and Open was won by Mortimer's Ch Laakso Dana.

News always welcome.
